

DYSLEXIA

INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS

June 6–8, 2016
Northwestern College, Orange City
DeWitt Learning Commons

$250 | $400 with 1
graduate credit

Graduate credit requires completion of a 10-hour practicum at the Excel Achievement Center, Sioux Center.*

Albert Einstein and Agatha Christie. Winston Churchill and Walt Disney. These inventive, creative, towering figures experienced and overcame dyslexia. According to the National Institutes of Health, dyslexia is the most common and prevalent of student learning disabilities, affecting at least 1 in 5 children in the U.S. The Dyslexia Institute curriculum will give you strategies and tools to help you effectively teach and inspire your students who have dyslexia.

Learn more and register at online.nwciowa.edu/dyslexia-institute

The Dyslexia Institute is sponsored by Northwestern College Graduate School & Adult Learning and Excel Achievement Center.

